HE IS BADLY WANTED MAN

Forged Check of Newport News Bank.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(West, aged thirty-eight, alleged to be one of the famous forgers of America, was captured here yesterday attired in the garb of a Catholic priest, and, after he had been denounced as an impostor by Cardinal Gibbons in the archepiscopal residence, the man attempted to kill himself with an automatic revolver loaded with steel hulleds. West tried to kill himself while standing before the captain's desk in the Central Police station.

West is the man who several weeks ago escaped the authorities of Lynenburg and Petersburg. Checks on banks throughout Virginia and other States of the East were found on him. He is held here on the charge of forging a check for $3,200 on the banking firm of Cram, Parls & Co., of Washington by means of a bogus check. He was tracked through the streets here and arrested on a street car. When arrested he coolly suggested that he be taken to the residence of Cardinal Gibbons for Identification.

Into the red parlor of the cardinal's home went the supposed priest, with a policeman behind him. A minute a later Cardinal Gibbons flushed. "Take this man from here, officer," commanded the cardinal. "He is an impostor, he is not a priest, and lock him up if you will." Cardinal Gibbons hade them go.

While talking to the cardinal Gibbons hade them go.

While talking to the cardinal dibbons hade the man as he fell to the floor, and he was taken to the Mercy Hospital in the autopatrol. The bullet had just grazed the flosh over the heart. The prisoner was returned to the Central Station for a preliminary hearing.

At the hearing was Colonel J. D. Little, of the postial inspectors service: Major Hooton, of the local postal inspector, and Detectives Howiett and Pratt, of washington, West is wanted by the government officials for forgery of money or in the Western North Carolina Conference are completed, and are ready to be announced when the remainder of the conference business has been transacted. All the business that remains unfinished is the reports of several boards and committees and the answering of the statistical minute questions. The appointments are always subject to change by the bishop and cabinet at the last minute, but it is not probable that many changes in those of their conference will be made between now and the hour of adjournment.

The law of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, now requires that a bishop make no appointment without the knowledge of the presiding elders, who constitute his cabinet. Bishop Hendrix announced before the close of the session yesterday that he saw no reason why the appointments should not be read at the close of the morning session on Monday, and certainly at the afternoon session of that day. This conference now includes welve districts instead of eleven, the North Wilkesboro district having finally been approved by Bishop Hendrix and the cabinet. The new district was formed from a part of the Mt. Airy district, and from the board of missions it will receive an appropriation of $500, to be applied to the salary of the presiding elder.

As a result of the formation of this district changes will be necessary in the ap-elder.

As a result of the formation of this district changes will be necessary in the appointments now constituting the Salisburg and Winston-Salem districts, and some of these on the former will be placed on the
